5. [] JSW) Talked with Bob Kunkle, House Appropriations Investigating Subcommittee staff, indicating that we had no possibilities at the moment of recently retired or soon to be retired people although I had a lead or two left. He asked then if I could indicate to him where there might be communications people in departments other than Defense who would have the special clearances. I indicated I would work on both these matters and be back in touch.

7. [] JSW) Jake Goodwin called indicating he had a call from a press man in the House gallery who was checking on a report from the Agency filed with the Judiciary Committee involving claims paid to named individuals under P.L. 88-558. I explained that this was a routine report required by law of some four or five years ago and that all agencies of Government filed similar reports. Goodwin will go back hopefully to prevent some "cute" story.
